

The „Highest“ welcomed his guests: Stormy First Session in the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg!

Just before the turn of the year, a handful of locals and a camera crew met in the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg to inaugurate the fresh setup with a “First Session”. They shredded away in sunshine, a fresh breeze and on a perfectly shaped jib setup. In the meantime, the setup has even been extended by several treats. The Bohny Snowpark Feldberg is definitely ready for the next rides, which you can also find out by checking out the pictures and clips of this session!

A beautiful sunrise awaited the riders Hannes Iwertkowski, Johannes Frei, Luis Eckert, Matthias Klinger, and Alex Knotz, when they arrived in the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg on the morning of December 28, 2011. Despite the wind, that prevailed that day, the motivated locals pulled out some sick styles. Thus, there was enough to capture for the film and photo crew, too. Filmmaker Sebastian Funk was also impressed by the freestyle enthusiastic local riders:

“When we arrived on the Feldberg, it appeared to be a perfect, sunny shooting day. Up on the mountain, however, we almost got blown out of the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg again by a very strong wind. I was, then, all the more astonished to note that the riders were not at all impressed by this. The community on the Feldberg is super stoked about the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg and really rocked the spot. The Tank and the long Downrail are particularly popular. Thanks to them, we were able to produce great shots, despite such weather conditions!”

Shortly after this „First Session“ and just in time before the turn of the year, Kristof Heidman and his crew have extended the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg by several Elements. By January 14, 2012, when the next shooting – the “Rookie Boxing Day” Shooting - will take place in the Bohny Snowpark Feldberg, the park should be pretty close to its final shape. The “Rookie Boxing Day” Shooting also constitutes the first part of the TWO FIFTY Public Photo Shootings, your chance for a professional photo shooting! In the subsequent Facebook voting, you get the chance to win awesome goodies from our sponsors. So practice hard and dress up because soon, you will be starring in front of the camera lenses!

You can already get an impression of what the results could look like by watching the photos and clips from the “First Session”. Enjoy!
